

SINGLE PAYER CAN HAPPEN

PHYSICIANS FOR A NATIONAL HEALTH PROGRAM

www.pnhpcalifornia.org

PNHP CALIFORNIA in collaboration with the California single payer state strategy group, will host the first annual Summer Conference on July 17, 2010 at the UCLA faculty center in Los Angeles.

Objectives:

- Review and respond to the recent federal health reform legislation
- Create state coalition task forces at the grassroots level around three key areas of single payer activism: education (speaking and media), advocacy (message-based and relationship-based legislative contact) and growth (regional coalition development).

The morning session features updates by Dr. Walter Tsou on the federal legislation, Sara Rogers and Michael Lighty on the status of California single payer bill SB810, and Don McCanne's review of the effects of the national reform bill on single payer prospects.

The afternoon session is a small group leadership training, focused on specific areas of activism: education (speaking and media), advocacy (political network theory and practice) and growth (local coalition formation, network tools, local chapter leadership).

Dinner will include presentations by Sheila Kuehl, Margaret Flowers and Mark Leno on the future of single payer nationally and in California .
